

ACCOUNTING SUPPORT SERVICE

We are rendering Accounting Support Service. These services are accomplished by expert's team who has affluent industry proficiency and practice. To rendering this service in effective way, our experts employ the advanced techniques. Besides, we render this service at reasonable costs.

Timely and accurate financial reporting that complies with a myriad of industry standards and changing local, state and international requirements is vital for growing business. We provide a range of accounting services that deliver reliable records to facilitate more informed financial decision making, without the distraction of day-to-day number crunching. Whether you are looking for a full range of services to help your small business thrive or just a team to supplement your accounting department, we tailor a solution to fit your needs and schedules. Bookkeeping, report generation, and filing services we offer include:

- Reviewing or compiling income and other financial statements
- Filing local, state, and international tax returns
- Preparation of Sales/Vat tax returns
- Furnishing balance sheets, cash balance and sales review reports, and general ledger analysis
- Providing billing and accounts receivable management
- Designing and implementing accounting systems

Advantages of Janaswamy

- Well experienced and skilled professional staff with proven project management skills
- International orientation and best practices with respect to financial reporting
- Local and global financial reporting servicing capabilities being part of our network
- Utmost emphasis on confidentiality of your financial and other strategic information
- Process orientation with emphasis on well-defined and documented procedures